

NATIVITY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

From the Desk of the Pastor

Winter has arrived and with its advent - winter's sister, snow, will begin to make itself present to us in short order. The barrenness of winter, where the leaves have fallen, no fruit is produced, and the coldness of the air reminds us of the barrenness of Elizabeth's womb and the virginity of Mary's womb - where through God's wondrous miracle Life springs forth for the salvation of mankind! The Herald and the Messiah both come to us on earth and from their example and works the barrenness of our hearts is filled with the life and fruit of the Gospel. Let us celebrate the mystery of the birth of John the Forerunner with the joyful expectation of the Lord's coming birth!

As we prepare for Christmas, please take note of opportunities for prayer:

- The Christmas Novena will be celebrated at 6:00pm from 15-23 December with opportunities for Confession before the Novena. Light refreshments and fellowship will follow in the Rectory following the Novena each evening. If you haven't made a good confession in a while, or have friends and family who might need to make a good confession, these evenings are perfect to get that taken care of and enjoy a brief moment of prayer in song in preparation for the glorious feast of Christmas!
- We will do the first round of decorating for Christmas on Sunday, 15 December following the Novena. Any and all help will be appreciated and all are invited to join in refreshments following.
- We will have our Rectory Open House/Christmas Party on Sunday 22 December following the Novena. All are invited and warmly welcome!

A Catholic Parish of the
