

SUNDAY OF THE HEALING OF THE LEPER

From the Desk of the Pastor

The following prayer is taken from the Evening Office of the Sunday of the Healing of the Leper:

O Good and Kind Lord, in Your goodness You healed the leper who approached You. In Your compassion and Your abundant mercy heal our bodies and souls, we who are sinners and Your servants who have become leprous with sin and by the abundance of our transgressions. Purify us in Your mercy and with Your hyssop wash Your worshippers, now and at all times, forever. Amen.

Throughout the body of prayers from our Syriac Maronite tradition we find a repeated image – that of Christ as a physician. Our Lord Jesus Christ is both the Creator of souls and bodies and also the Heavenly Physician who heals the wounds caused to our souls and bodies by sin and death.

Last week, Christ manifested His Divinity by transforming the water at Cana into wine (also transforming the family's shame and humiliation into joy and divine praises) and, this week, He manifests His Divinity again by cleansing the leper of his ailment. We see in this miracle a healing of body (the physical result of his leprous state) and soul (the estrangement from the community as a result of his unclean status). The miracles we commemorate throughout the Season of Great Lent continually demonstrate to us the medicinal power of Christ's compassion and mercy. The physical miracles of Christ always contain a metaphysical miracle as well.

Throughout our lives we all experience physical ailments - be they leprosy, paralysis, blindness, or anything else. We also suffer from spiritual ailments as well – the leprosy of jealousy, the paralysis of fear, the blindness of pride or anger, etc. If we will bring ourselves to an earthly doctor for medical care let us also remind ourselves to approach the Heavenly Physician who heals wounds far greater than our own physical ailments.

Let us make this holy Fast a time to examine our own spiritual infirmities and approach the Heavenly Physician – we have no need to repay Him for His services, as He heals us only out of His ineffable compassion, mercy, and love for mankind.

MOSES DEPICTED THE TYPE AMONG THE PEOPLE OF THE HEBREWS: WHEN A MAN BECOMES LEPROUS WITHIN THE ENCAMPMENT HE IS DRIVEN FROM ITS MIDST AND CAST OUTSIDE; WHILE IF HE SLOUGHS OFF HIS LEPROSY AND MAKES SUPPLICATION, THE PRIEST PURIFIES HIM WITH HYSSOP, BLOOD, AND WATER, AND HE RETURNS TO HIS FORMER ABODE AND ENTERS INTO HIS INHERITANCE.
