

SUNDAY OF THE PARABLE OF THE PRODIGAL SON

From the Desk of the Pastor

"True Father, You received the Prodigal Son after he squandered Your possessions in debauchery and drunkenness. You took him by the neck and kissed him, slaughtered a fattened calf and received him – receive Your servants, O Compassionate One, who return and come to Your sheepfold while the angels and watchers rejoice in the hope there is for the repentant."

(From Sunday Maronite Morning Prayer)

This week we commemorate the Parable of the Prodigal Son. The other Sundays of Great Lent commemorate specific miracles that Christ performed during his life – the transmutation of water into wine, granting sight to the blind, movement to the paralyzed, healing to the leprosy, etc. However, this week we commemorate a miracle performed on the behalf of all mankind – the mercy shown by God to the repentant sinner.

The healings and miracles performed by Christ were demonstrations of His Divinity and Power. The parable we commemorate today demonstrates God's strength through forbearance and His longsuffering mercy. God, as He did in the times of Noah, could punish the wicked with utter destruction, yet He promised mankind He would not do so ever again. Christ, at the urging of the angels surrounding the Cross, could have rained down lightning and might from Heaven to destroy those who were crucifying Him on Good Friday. Yet, He chose to submit to their unjust punishment. God has shown His might through choosing mercy for sinners rather than just judgment. Like the Prodigal Son, we have squandered the Gifts of God throughout our lives. But, also like the Prodigal Son if we return to God in sincere repentance, He has already slaughtered the finest Offering on our behalf – His only-Begotten Son upon the Cross and is ready to welcome us home to the eternal banquet of Heaven.

THE YOUNGER BROTHER SAID TO HIS FATHER: "I HAVE SINNED AGAINST HEAVEN AND AGAINST YOU. FATHER, MY HEART REPROVES ME, BUT YOU ARE GREATER THAN MY HEART."
